L.B. 83-25-14

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.L.6597-L.B.83 25-12, dated 24th April 1926, I have the honour to state that Sirageri is situated in one of the most unhealthy tracts of the district and the necessity for creating some facilities for the people to obtain medical aid is very great. I therefore heartily support the proposal of the District Board to arrange for weekly visits to the village by the Sub Assistant Surgeon of Kumsi, the Board meeting his travelling allowance according to the Rules. As regards Ayanur and Harnahalli weekly visits to these places were commenced about 10 years ago, in accordance with Government Order No. 6691-5-Md46-16-5 dated 12-4-1917 and No. 7061-4-Md46-16-5 dated 7-5-1917, and the present proposal of the Board amounts merely to supplement, from the funds of the two panchayats, the allowance of Rs.12/- already granted to the Sub Assistant Surgeon from Malnad Improvement Funds, as per Government Order No. 4 C. 2530-1/Sam 3-21-10 dated 1-11-21 which is considered by the Board as not adequate.
